National Suicide Prevention Month

Department of Defense
Connect to Protect:
Support is Within Reach

September is Suicide Prevention month. You might be surprised that at Yokota we are talking about suicide. But guess what? That is the first and most important step in preventing suicide. Talk about it!!!! Tell a friend or tell an adult. But break the silence. During September, we will have tips and reminders...so let's break the silence, Panthers!

Volunteer opportunity at the Thrift Store

Open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 09:00 to 13:00 and every first and third Saturday of each month at the same time. We also have our volunteer days on every third Thursday of the month from 16:00 to 19:00.

Anyone that wishes to come to volunteer must be at least 16 years of age; If they are under 16 they must have a chaperone. Attached a sign up sheet with our available days.
